EMAC and Public Assistance - 2017 Winter Storms

Cal OES Recovery Division identified the need for Public Assistance subject matter experts to assist with the aftermath of the 2017 Severe Winter Storms. Accordingly, Cal OES requested assistance from other states through the Emergency Management Assistance Compact (EMAC) - the Nation's mutual-aid system. New Jersey and Colorado provided personnel that arrived on Monday, 06/13/17. Both states along with other potential states will be providing support between now and the beginning of September at various Joint Field Offices throughout California. The goal is to assist those impacted counties in identifying disaster related damage and program eligibility.

Paul's Slide, State Route 1, Monterey County

Per Cal OES Coastal Duty Officer (CDO), as of 1300 hours on 05/25/17, Paul's Slide on State Route 1 has been closed to all traffic.

- Assessment will commence and further details will be provided once released.

Mud Creek Slide, State Route 1, Monterey County

The Mud Creek area on State Route 1 sustained a major slide on the evening of 05/20/17, when over a million tons of rock and dirt fell down the slope continuing down to the ocean floor 250 feet off the shoreline.

- The Mud Creek area is ¼ mile in length, made up of five slides, four of which fell during this single incident and consolidated into one slide. The remaining slide now extends 1,500 feet in length over State Route 1 and is about 35 to 40 feet deep.
- Roadwork at Mud Creek was suspended and heavy equipment removed due to the threat of new slides and for safety of highway workers. Caltrans geologists and engineers plan to assess it further when this area stabilizes.
- Estimated opening date is 06/01/18.

Pfeiffer Bridge Incident, Monterey County

California Highway Patrol (CHP) and Caltrans had a hard closure on the Pfeiffer Bridge on HWY 1 at mile marker 45.52 (SB Sycamore Canyon and the Bridge) due to a crack in the bridge. WEATHER SYNOPSIS BY REGION

NORTHERN CALIFORNIA

Very Hot and Dry Through Saturday with North Winds Returning Wednesday-Thursday

Isolated Lightning Over Higher Terrain Today and Tuesday

High pressure will be over Northern California through Saturday, continuing the very hot and dry weather. Isolated thunderstorms are expected over the higher terrain today and Tuesday, with a few strikes possible at lower elevations. The great majority of lightning will be above 3500 ft elevation where fuels are moist and the ground is either wet or still snow-covered. Winds will also be fairly light today and Tuesday, except where thunderstorm outflow occurs. Temperatures will be around 20 degrees above normal. Minimum humidity will be 10-20% and poor overnight relative humidity (RH) recovery will be common.

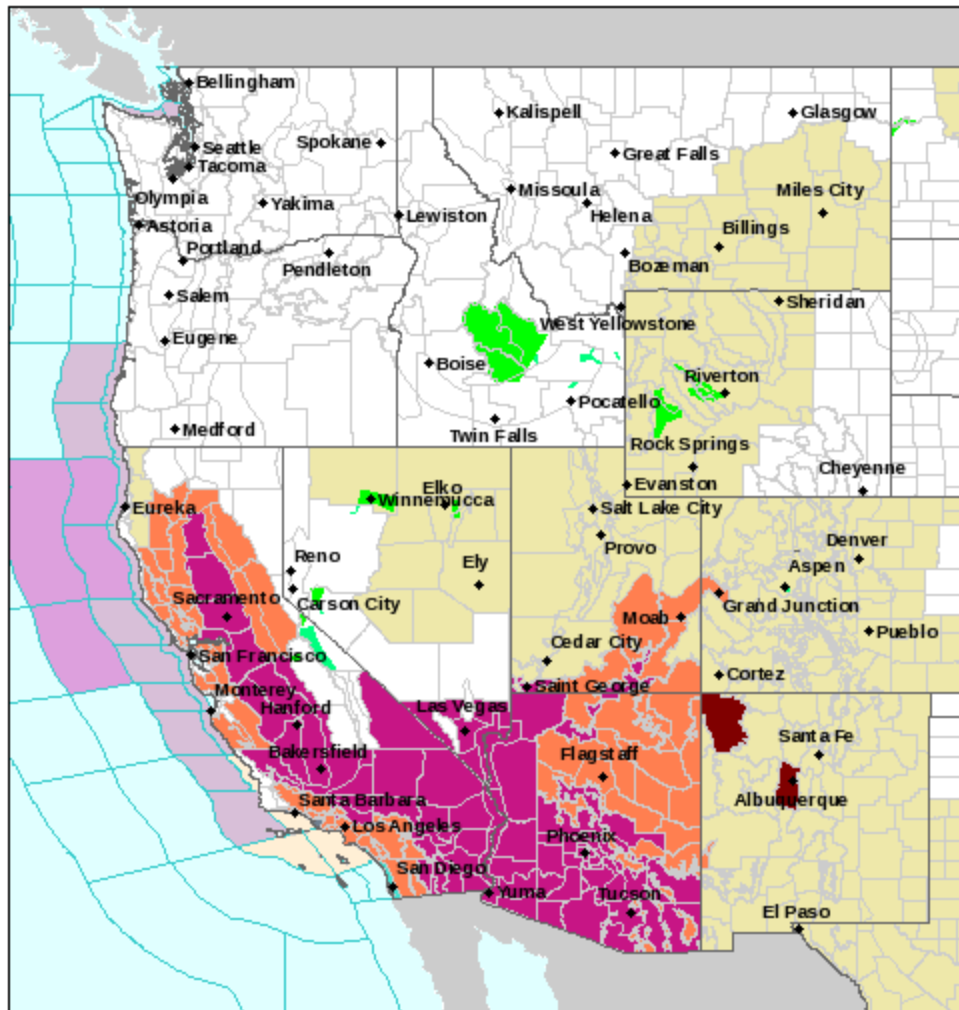

On Wednesday a northerly surface wind pattern will develop. By Wednesday evening Northwest-Northwest winds of 10-20 mph with gusts of 25-35 mph and locally higher can be expected from the lower western Sierra slopes to the coastal mountains. These winds will diminish midday Thursday, but still continue at lighter speeds in many areas until the evening. Temperatures will remain about 20 degrees above normal and minimum RH will be 5-15% in inland areas. Poor overnight RH recovery will continue. Thunderstorm chances will continue in the Sierra south of highway 50. Friday and Saturday will remain hot and dry with light winds. Computer models are showing the high pressure ridge breaking down on Sunday, with a chance that an incoming low pressure trough sets off more thunderstorms.

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

Hot and very dry through this weekend

Record or near record heat will occur away from the coastal areas through Wednesday as a strong ridge of high pressure sits over the Desert Southwest. Maximum temperatures will be 15 to 20 degrees above normal away from the coastal areas, with upper 80s and 90s across the mountains and 100 to 112 in the valleys. The ridge will weaken slightly causing temperatures to cool to 10 to 15 degrees above normal Thursday through this weekend. Minimum humidity will be mainly 15% to 30% away from the coastal areas across Central California and in the single digits and teens across Southern California today. Minimum humidity will drop into the single digits and teens away from the coastal areas across both Central and Southern California Tuesday through this weekend. Isolated afternoon showers and thunderstorms will be possible across the Sierra Crest through this weekend, except on Tuesday when the ridge of high pressure will be at its strongest.
